

L. Jones Demands Congress Act On Glades Cane Crop

Tells Woman's League In Palm Beach Production Being Delayed

Luther Jones, well known local sugar cane grower, at a luncheon meeting of the Woman's League For Better Government, Wednesday, bluntly suggested that the future of sugar in congress "get together and do something" about the sugar situation.

Without naming any member of congress, Mr. Jones declared that only unity of action would produce results and that the Florida members should "pull together and do something—anything—but do it, rather than be involved."

Reviewing the history of sugar cane production in the Everglades section, he pointed out that the quota act of 1930 restricted Florida production to one per cent of the national quota.

"We cane growers are ready and eager to raise more sugar cane, but the mill at Clewiston can only process a certain amount. Capital is ready to install one or more mills, but they have no assurance of a market."

Temporarily lifted by executive order of the President, will not be slapped back immediately following the war.

As a possible solution, he suggested the Federal Government install a mill, then if the government wants to re-enact the quota law, private capital will not be involved.

"We growers will immediately double our output. We do not demand any guarantee of how long we will be allowed to produce limited acreage allowance," he said.

Women's Club Hear Mrs. John Wilson

Mrs. John Wilson was in charge of the program on poetry at the regular bi-weekly meeting of the Belle Glade Country Club, held in the clubhouse on Wednesday afternoon, and gave a recital of "White Cliffs" by Alice Durr Miller and several brief poems from "Floridays" by Don Blanding.

Mrs. Herbert D. Beck presided over the business session, giving that all members bring their gifts for the Veterans hospital to the library or to her house this week.

During the social hour a refreshment course was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Mary E. Hall, Mrs. M. S. Sullivan, Mrs. Joe Fredlund, Mrs. James A. Ball, Mrs. J. R. Neller, Mrs. Curtis Thompson and Mrs. Richard Townsend.

Draft Board Members And Clerks Attend Meeting

Folks a war is on involving the U. S. Shootin' war has been only forty-some-odd miles from Belle Glade; now war is in the Glades.

"Dependency in a material and substantial way on earned income is the only measuring stick."

At a called meeting of members and clerks of the four Draft Boards of Palm Beach county in the chambers of Judge Chilton, draft boards were told that leniency and generosity of interpretation of regulations had been vogue. They were warned that a 10,000,000 man armed force is on the way and a general tightening of rules must be involved.

COMMANDER

Local Legionnaires Prepare To Attend District Meeting

Local Legionnaires are preparing to attend the Fifth District Conference of the American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary and Sons of the American Legion scheduled to be held in Lake Worth on Saturday and Sunday, March 21-22.

William DeLacey Allen, vice commander of Albany, Ga., will be the principal speaker and it is considered an honor to have a person of such high rank to attend.

Department Commander Rupert Caviness and Department Adjutant C. Howard Rowton, along with many other local Legionnaires will attend this important meeting and District Commander Ralph E. Freeman of Belle Glade.

Activities will begin with a dance at the Legion Home Saturday night and the Sunday schedule is the 40 and 50 promenade Sunday at 9:00 a. m. Legion at Legion Home, Auxiliary at the Elk's Home, Sons at the Service Men's Club, and at 10:00 a. m.; joint luncheon at the Seminole Inn Sunday at 12:30. Hotel headquarters will be at the Gulf Stream hotel.

Those who have registered to go from here are Commander George Farnall, W. L. Cunningham, C. M. Larrick, Luther Jones, Robert Y. Grech, Arthur Wells, J. D. McEaddy, Hampton Holloway and Dr. William J. Buck.

Rotary Club To Hear Toy Symphony Today

The "Toy Symphony," first grade pupils of Miss Elizabeth Thomson will furnish an interesting program at the Rotary Club luncheon meeting Friday, then the following selections will be presented: "Cane Song," "Sound March," "Lois du Bal," "La Caramelle," "March of the Little Soldiers," "March of the Little Soldiers."

Members of the band are Elaine McCabe, Dorothy Kidd, Lois Neller, Patty Ingram, Mrs. J. R. Grech, Arthur Wells, J. D. McEaddy, Hampton Holloway and Dr. William J. Buck.

A new $100,000 plant for the Florida Cold Storage and Cold Storage Company is nearing completion in Miami. It will specialize in quick freezing of Florida seafoods and vegetables that position.

Somehow in the regulations is a clause that "no man may be classified as 3 when he has voluntarily acquired dependency since the 16th day of September 1940 and before December 8, 1941."

One board member, in answer to a question, was assured that "a shotgun wedding would be construed as an involuntary acquisition of dependents."

Large Class Sees Showing Of Film About Fire Bombs

Class Divided Into Two Groups And Reviewed Lesson Of Film

Seventy-five people attended the showing of the film "Fighting The Fire Bomb" Tuesday night at the local high school. The film, loaned to the Belle Glade Defense Council, is the first of many such films to be shown to the people of Belle Glade in the regular defense courses. It is planned to show 25 films before the courses are over. One each week, to be run at all classes, will be shown.

Some of the films are actual shots taken by the Royal Air Force on their trips over France and Germany.

The showing of the film was delayed Tuesday night because of trouble with the electricity and therefore the classes were followed were cut short to allow everyone to get home before such a late hour. The crowd was divided into two groups under the direction of the instructors proceeded to go over in more detail what was shown.

Another class on Bombs and other Gases will be held Friday night at the same location.

Paper Baling Machine Ready For Operation

Junius Harris, secretary and treasurer of the safety committee for the Belle Glade Defense Council announced today that plans for the collection and sale of waste paper by the Defense Council and the Boy Scouts is well under way. Already several sample bales have been run off with a hay baling machine loaned by the Shawano Plantation Co. of Ocala, Fla.

Mr. Harris states that he believes by next week a ton of paper will be baled every day so long as the supply of paper holds out.

Getting this baling machine set up and in operation has been no easy job according to Mr. Harris. He credits the cooperation of everyone connected with it. After the baling machine had been set up, the necessary transportation it was necessary that it be brought to a place near the railroad in order that the paper could be shipped to the plant.

Mr. Harris states that he plans to freight cars for shipment to paper mills. Mr. Blanton Watson, local celery man, loaned one to trucks and a crew of men to packhouse in South Bay. Mr. Hill of the Hector Supply Company last volunteered the use of his truck.

Mr. Harris stated that the defense council but it was later found out that the cost of transporting the paper from Belle Glade to the South Bay plant would be greater than the proceeds from the paper after it was baled.

Mr. J. P. Pike, another Belle Glade farmer, was kind enough to loan his packing house located at the Belle Glade terminal. Mr. Sanberry arranged for transportation of the paper to the plant.

WOOL KNITTERS TO HAVE SUPPLY BASE

Due to the acute shortage of wool and needles, many would-be knitters have been unable to help in the various work groups as they would have done, and the scarcity of material has seriously affected the progress of the local sewing circles.

On the last trip to the Red Cross headquarters, made by members of the Motor Corps, none of the orders requested here could be filled.

This situation will be relieved when the local supply base is adequately stocked and materials are rechecked here. The new sub-station is now ready for use and will be operated by the Motor Corps as this group will be responsible for large quantities of material checked out to the knitters.

When the stock is full, operation all local work groups may secure necessary supplies here.

Mr. Mabel Yuta, in charge of the knitting class sponsored by the Everglades Business and Professional Women's Club, has announced that she now has both needles and wool for children's two-piece knitted suits, and the county quota for these garments is being met.

Also, she has a supply of hand wool and needles for Waco, Cuffs, Rifle Mits and Sea Boots. These are new types of garments and are interesting to make.

High School Seniors Are Eligible For Scholarship Award

Coral Gables.—Seniors of the Belle Glade high school are eligible to compete for the second annual University of Miami $100 Journalism Scholarship Award. It was announced here today. The contest is state-wide and closes May 20.

Each competing student must receive his diploma from a Florida high school at mid-year or in June, 1942 and should play sports; journalism at the University of Miami. Both boys and girls are eligible.

The 1942 award will be given for the best original essay or article of from 1500 to 5000 words on the subject, "What Newspapers Can Do to Aid Our Country." Prominent Florida newspaper men will act as the judges.

In announcing the contest, Simon Hochberger, assistant professor of journalism, emphasized that entrants in the competition are not required to have had previous journalism experience. High school seniors, nor must they be members of a school publication staff.

Full information may be obtained from the Journalism Department, University of Miami, Coral Gables.

The contest last year was Rita Grossman, Miami.

Lead and Ink, honorary Journalism fraternity at the University of Miami, is sponsoring the contest.

High School Seniors Will Present Play

Babs O'Connell portrays the part of Karen Andre in the Senior Class play, "The Night of the January 16th." Miss Andre is the leading character in the play, which is a story of a girl who is different from the usual leading role. It is a difficult character to portray for a girl who is on trial for murder; she is, therefore, under a constant strain, a condition which will call for good, dramatic acting ability.

Miss Andre's defense attorney is played by Ross Blech. The prosecuting attorney for the State is played by Carolyn Spooner. These two boys are putting their hearts into the play, because it is up to them to convince the jury, which is to be made up of the members of the Senior Class, that Karen Andre is either guilty or not guilty. All the action centers around these two lawyers and the jury.

Included in the cast is: Velma Taylor, Elizabeth Bregger, David Shearer, Charles Reed, Harold Thomas, Melvin Spooner, and Miss Andre.

Doyle Tucker, David Chaney, Willette Malloy, Bill Purcell, and Miss Andre.

Class Listens To Sgt. E. P. Hocutt Talk About Gas

Private C. E. McClure Helps In Gas Mask Demonstration

Sergeant E. P. Hocutt accompanied by Private, First Class, C. E. McClure, through the courtesy of Lieut. Donnell of Johnson Field, gave a demonstration of the use and care of gas masks before a large Defense Council class at the high school, Thursday night.

At the request of Coach Thompson, Sergeant Hocutt gave the regular class instructions on gas masks. Sergeant Thompson and local teachers were glad to listen to just how it should be done Army style.

One left the gas classes with the definite impression that none of the probable gases are as dangerous as they are made out to be. Death by gas poisoning is not an attractive end, and injury by the use of gas is something that is not to be taken lightly.

Gas schools will be continued twice weekly in the area where the gas supply has had an opportunity to attend.

COUNTRY LIVESTOCK PRODUCERS PLAN TO EXHIBIT CATTLE

In a recent meeting of the Palm Beach County Livestock Producers Association, plans were made to sponsor "Cattle Days" at the annual Everglades Fair, scheduled to be held here in April, when twenty pens of cattle will feature the exhibition of various members of the association.

George Braddock presided, pointing out the rapid progress in the Florida cattle industry, and the fact that the tradition of the Texas Fever Tick and the replacing of old scrub bulls with pure bred bulls.

Discussion on the use of mineral salt boxes was led by Herbert S. Johnston, vice chairman of the association and the fact that the use of mineral salt boxes was led by Herbert S. Johnston, vice chairman of the association and the fact that the use of mineral salt boxes was led by Herbert S. Johnston, vice chairman of the association.

The third Tuesday of each month was set for the regular meeting dates and the next meeting will be held in Belle Glade.

Crippled Children's Asso. Holds Meeting

A meeting of the Belle Glade Unit of the South Florida Crippled Children's Association was held at the office of Dr. William C. Lutz, Jr., on Tuesday, March 17, for the purpose of making plans to launch the ninth annual Easter Seal drive.

W. L. Lutz, president of the Crippled Children's Society, presided, explaining that 90 per cent of all funds raised in this manner is kept in the local unit, while only 10 per cent is sent to National headquarters.

Mr. Philbrick recently returned from a tour of the Tallahassee State Hospital, where he was when $900 per year was set up for each teacher of physically handicapped children and it was found that the need for such children to each teacher instead of 30.

Since the State has requested that a local county organization be organized, the local group recommended the immediate organization of a Palm Beach Crippled Children's Association.

Invitations are being extended to all other units in the county to attend a meeting to be held at the Woman's Club building here on Tuesday, March 24 at 1:30 o'clock and consider drafting a charter for the organization.

Plans for the meeting will be held to consolidate into one big County Unit. Other units of the area are Delray, West Palm Beach, Lake Worth, Pahokee, Okeechobee and Canal Point.

Thomas Creech Promoted

Mrs. Hans Stein has received word from her son, Thomas Creech that he has been promoted to the rank of Captain in the U. S. Army.

BRAHMAN STEERS STEERS WORKERS

Some kisher outfit from Miami had the misfortune of having a truck load of fat steers turn over near Bean City last week.

Clive Boone and Dan Whidden of the Hooker-Jones organization, as a friendly gesture, offered to herd the steers together so that they might be reloaded on a truck for Miami.

After a half day on horseback Clive and Dan reported that they had made a good days work—keeping out of the way of the Brahman steers. It seems that when lane steer got on the dyke Dan Whidden followed by Clive lit out to steer the steer where he belonged.

The steers are still roaming around the country. One of them chased one of his men to a ditch and only by using a tractor was he able to rescue his poor hand.

Reports indicate that there will be some good steaks in the South Bay-Bean City area, soon that are not bought from a market.

First Numbers To Be Drawn In Selective Draft Tuesday Night

Donald Russell Smith, age 20, was the first person who lived in this district who's name was drawn in Washington Tuesday in the latest Selective Service drawing.

The following numbers are in the approximate order that they will be drawn in the drawing.

Since only an approximation of the local order numbers is possible from the national list, the Herald is publishing only the first 10 numbers that apply to local board No. 4. Accurate order numbers will not be available until at least another week.

Below are the following numbers in the order in which they will be called.

1. Donald Russell Smith, 20, Belle Glade, John Henry Nelson, colored, Clewiston, 3. Franklin Johnson, colored, Belle Glade, 4. Jim Potter, colored, Belle Glade, 5. Henry Carl Drieling, white, Pahokee, 6. Abraham Grant, colored, Pelican Lake, 7. Zeb Leary, colored, South Bay, 8. Joe Marion, colored, South Bay, 9. Will McMichael, colored, Chosen, 10. Owen Kenneth Carr, white, Pahokee.

FILMS SECURED FOR DEFENSE COUNCIL

Mr. E. S. Roberts, manager of the Ocala Migratory Camp, has secured some 25 sound films of actual air raids, fire fighting and defense measures to be shown to the rate of one a week at the Belle Glade community and particularly to members of the Defense Council.

While these films are secured from the Camp, Mr. Roberts has arranged with the local Council to allow them to be used for the benefit of the community.

One film, "The Warning" is three reels and is an actual picture of a raid in England showing the destruction wrought as well as the preparation for defense and the actual activity following the raid.

Other films cover anti-aircraft fires, air raids, Navy in action and include practical every phase of defense both military and civilian.

The exact schedules of the films and the list has been completed and delivery dates assigned.

The Defense Council is highly interested in the arrangements and the entire community is indebted to Mr. Roberts for his generosity," stated Joe Friedman, vice chairman.

Rotarians Hear Former Governor Of Philippines

Rotarians listened attentively Friday to well informed participant in a bit of the history of the Philippines.

The local hunters of the Philippines are a loyal people. Loyalty is a major characteristic of this fierce and effective warrior race.

He agreed by solemn treaty sealed by the drinking of warm dog blood to curtail his head hunting proclivities years ago.

These remarks are from a man who served 15 years in the military government of these Moros and a man who sealed a great warrior of these tribes by drinking warm dog's blood with the various chiefs.—Governor W. A. Pack.

Belle Glade and South Bay school children will begin their Defense Stamp Contest today, sponsored by the Belle Glade Herald. The contest, which will run from March 20 to May 20, is designed to increase the Defense Stamp savings of the school children and at the same time bring in money for the school itself.

For every one subscription to The Belle Glade Herald the student sells, he or she receives from the Herald 50 cents in Defense Stamps. For every six-month subscription they sell they will receive 25 cents in Defense Stamps. This applies on new or old subscriptions. All subscriptions after one year will be in proportion to the money received. Twenty-five cents out of every dollar taken in will be given to the school.

Belle Glade schools will be divided into two groups, the high school group and the elementary school group in the other South Bay, having less grades, will not be divided and the two groups will compete only against one another.

Prizes to be awarded will include a $25.00 Defense Bond to the group winning the contest. Prizes to the group collecting the most money will be determined by the amount grossed in the contest. First prize will be 50 percent of the money in the group. Second prize will be 30 percent of the "pot" money and third prize will be 20 percent.

The schools have agreed to use the money to buy books or other necessities for the school library.

Results of the contest will be given in The Herald every week and other prizes will be announced later in the contest.

SPECIAL FIRST AID COURSE AVAILABLE

After obtaining the future transportation of the coming year, I decided that I would make a breakdown run for a few miles to see how she acted under guiding hands that haven't clapped on the handlebars for a long time. It was high on my twenty years. Being a bit lucky I was able to get one on the open market, that was a 1974 Honda CB 400, a two speed rear axle in the driving wheel that gave it a low and high gear, similar to an overdrive. The handlebars were yesterday had. Slipping 'er over, I gradually led the power off on a zig zag course, a bone bruising speed about five miles an hour. I was in for about a half hour. I could keep it going for a long enough with me to where I could use the power to find out that the power

"Margaret," Betty said slowly, "I have a plan. You people folks in town, while I go to the farmers. They can help it. I'll be back in a few minutes, short cut across the river and good luck," she called, as Margaret turned and ran rapidly up the river. It was quite a way to the nearest farmhouse and they fell down several times, but at last they reached the door. Having reached Silas Jones' house she knocked on the door. The only reason she had for knocking was that she thought she knew that they could hitch their horses to the plow and go around the town. Whatever it was, she thought that if she shook her head to get rid of such a terrible thought. Again she knocked on the door and this time she was answered. The excited voice she explained the situation. Quickly Silas Jones' door opened and she found him standing at his house. The next hour or so were long, hot, toilsome ones. machine from South Bay to its new location. All that was necessary then was a motor to run the machine and when it was known that a motor was needed three men offered the use of their motors. A motor offered by Roy Albaugh was finally selected and through the cooperation of Mr. L. E. Will of the Pioneer Motor Sales Company and Mr. Clarence Kiddler of the Everglades Experiment Station it was connected to the baling machine and everything was ready for operation except for the fact that there was no paper to run.

Mr. Louis Solomonte, of the Town of Belle Glade, offered to work out a plan whereby the city would sort out all paper collected by its garbage trucks and deliver it to the Pike engineering house so bins were built in the packing house for the storage of the paper until it could be baled. At the present time the city is delivering four truckloads of paper each week and it is expected that this amount will be greatly increased when every one finds out that their waste paper is not burned or destroyed by the city but is delivered intact to the Deference Council for baling and shipment to pulp mills.

Mr. Solomonte asks that everyone cooperate by keeping their paper separate from the balance of their refuse and if possible bundle up their newspapers and magazines and set them by their garbage cans. This will greatly speed up collections and paper will not be scattered over the town by the wind.

S. Bay Demonstration Club Has Canning Day

Mrs. Edith Y. Barrus, county home demonstration agent, arranged for a demonstration for the South Bay vicinity at the school Thursday afternoon as part of a series of such demonstrations over the county in line with the food for national defense program. Mr. Hall, of the Canning Canners Company, presented the demonstrations canning in tin, grapefruit, carrots, cabbage and carrot citrus marmalade.

Mr. Hall's discussion had to do with the three rules for proper food preservation. (1) Choose a good product, young, tender, healthy. He emphasized the point that while meats should neither be eaten or canned until 48 hours after the animal is killed, vegetables must either be on table or in the can within an hour after bringing in from the garden if the vitamins and flavor are to be retained. (2) Put this good product in an air tight container and (3) properly process container to kill spoilage within the sealed container.

Canning bulletins on meats, vegetables and fruits were given out by Mrs. Barrus to those who desired them. Mrs. Barrus left a pressure cooker at the cafeteria kitchen to be used by those who desired to learn the proper methods of canning. Anyone wishing such instruction may contact Mrs. P. E. Goodhouse, Mrs. G. J. Barstow or some member of the Home Demonstration Club and arrangements will be made for them to bring their product and learn the proper methods of canning under an experienced canner.

Those attending were Mrs. F. P. Mutchler, Mrs. B. M. Dose of Miami, Mrs. J. W. Lyons of Bean City, Mrs. Wm. Hunt of Bare Beach, Mrs. Rosa Squires of Chipley, Mrs. M. D. Harty, Mrs. L. L. Lovell, Mrs. G. Y. Barstow, Mrs. M. E. Cooper, Mrs. A. B. Barnes, Mrs. Marvin Miller, Mrs. S. B. Jordan, Mrs. H. C. Willits, Mrs. C. B. Higginbotham, Mrs. P. E. Goodhouse, Maxine and Dorothy Walker, Maxine and Dorothy Mutchler, Dorothy Scarboro, Carol Best, Wanda Lowery, Martha Ratley, Mamie Ruth Henderson, Marjorie Byrd and other members of the Junior I-T-I club.

Following the demonstration, canning equipment including pressure cookers and scales were tested and repaired by Mr. Hall.

B. & P. WOMEN'S CLUB HAS SPEAKER

"The strength of our nation is only in our people. If our citizens are not healthy, the nation as a whole is weak," said Carolyn Jackson, Home Management Director of the Osceola Migratory Camp in a talk on "Health and Welfare" at the regular program meeting of the Everglades Business and Professional Women's Club, held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Mary Vaughn in Pahokee.

"In speaking of health," she continued, "we usually refer to the physical condition but it may be applied to the mental state and the spiritual attitude also." She urged that each individual have a thorough physical examination twice a year and pointed out that the Government recognizes the importance of a high health standard, now in our National emergency more than ever, and has established health clinics in all the migratory camps.

In speaking of the mental health, she said that we must keep our minds flexible enough to adjust our lives to the existing conditions and not rebel against the things that interrupt our own daily routine.

Mrs. Fay Greer, health and welfare chairman, was in charge of the program and also presented Miss Margaret Haines, Home Mission worker, who gave visual Bible stories on the newly devised flannel board as she teaches it in the local migratory camps. Mrs. Marion Dulany, chairman of the Nutrition Division of the Pahokee Defense Council, gave a brief report of the work being done in her department.

Following the meeting, a chop suey supper was served buffet style, with Mrs. Dulany, Mrs. Dulany, and Mrs. Alice Elard as hostesses. Others attending were Mrs. Florence Smith, Mrs. Kate Cross, Miss Sadie Barwick, Mrs. Nell Seutler, Mrs. Pansy Smith, Mrs. Alma Farrow, Miss Fay Lawrence and Miss Doris Phillips.

First Baptist to Hold Revival Meetings From
 March 31 To April 3

March 31 through April 3 marks the date for the First Baptist annual revival services. The meetings will be held each night at eight o'clock. There will be a special number by the church choir each night under the direction of W. L. Cunningham. The speaker for the series of meetings will be the Rev. Preston Sellers of Northwood Baptist church, West Palm Beach. He is known and loved by many in this section. The public is cordially invited to come and enjoy the help and inspiration of these meetings and this revivalist. At this time we feel nothing is more essential than a return to vital and challenging religion.

Young Womens Auxiliary
 Has Program on "Justice"

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Juanita Bessant Monday night with Miss Elizabeth Cunningham presiding.

Miss Blanche Short was in charge of the program on "Justice." Plans were made to start the study course, using the Women's Missionary Society textbook. The next meeting was canceled because of it conflicting with the revival.

Mrs. Luther Jones, counselor from the Women's Missionary Society attended. Refreshments were served by the hostess, following the business session.

Draft Men Refusing To Cure Physical Defects
 Are Violating Law

Attorney General Watson's recent ruling that "any person who delays or interferes with the workings of the selective service by refusing to cure any physical defects which prevented induction is violating a state law and is subject to arrest" opens the door to action against a great number of persons in this area. Information from the local draft board, that approximately 40 percent of those examined locally were rejected on account of physical defects that are remedial.

Action in one or more counties in Florida under this law have resulted in individuals being quarantined and forced to take the necessary medical treatment to cure these minor defects. A great majority of these cases were for venereal diseases.

It has been pointed out that the government affords clinics for free treatment of venereal diseases here, and for all types of medical treatment for migratory farm labor. If the law is evaded by local or county officers, it is anticipated that better than 1,000 men under the local board will be affected.

What would happen if the Board of Health invoked this law and quarantined those without draft age who are affected with venereal disease until they are cured? They probably wouldn't need to worry about tires.

Mrs. Murray Appointed
 To State Welfare Board

Mrs. R. L. Murray has received official notice of her appointment to membership on the State Welfare Board from District 10. The appointment came through Governor Holland and is the first time that anyone from Belle Glade has held this office.

The position is a recognition of ability and trust and carries a distinct honor. There are two other members from the county, one being George A. Chalker, chairman of the County Board and Dr. Carl N. Herman, both of West Palm Beach.
